

Your Task: Make an online-suitable visual meme which accurately reflects some aspect of the philosophy of the course.

(email it to Cornet by the due date; this will be shared with your classmates)

Here are some examples:

Thomas Hobbes (1588-1679):
“The cup is half empty”

Benjamin Franklin (1706-1790):
“The cup is half full”

Niccolo Machiavelli (1469-1527):
“Either way, it's not going to be enough coffee”

Always leave it to Machiavelli to brutally tell it like it is!
